

Come Meet Your Neighbors!

October 10, 2019

10:00am - 2:00pm

Share Hope Inc.
is a non-profit organization

John Chavis Memorial Park and Community Center

Share Hope is seeking Wake and Triangle Area vendors and service providers offering supportive services that include our neighbors living with mental health conditions.

Services must be free of charge to the client.

Participate in this event (at no charge) as a vendor or service provider, and you can:

- Showcase your services and community inclusion
- Lead activities that equip and empower
- Conduct informational breakout sessions
- Provide onsite services (e.g., health screenings and program intakes)

This event is FOR the community and BY the community.
EVERYONE is welcome and
INCLUSION is the THEME.

Vendors should be prepared to provide information and opportunities to the community at large.

Contact Elliot Palmer, Jr. at sharehopeinc@gmail.com to participate in this event as a vendor or service provider.

Sponsorship opportunities are also available!

Not sure if your organization's prepared to meet the needs of a truly diverse clientele?

Share Hope, Inc. is sponsoring two free training events to help service providers assess, prepare, and align with requirements in the provision services to all people with qualifying needs especially those who live with disabilities.

Trainings are planned for July and August for community partners. Participating event vendors will receive priority in registration process.
